

EDI Charter

All members of staff, volunteers, students and clients of QAC are entitled to equality of rights and opportunities and have the same responsibility to respect and treat people with dignity regardless of their differences.

To do this...

The Charity will:

- Promote equality and seek to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations between all people with protected characteristics and those without.
- Respect and recognise the diverse skills, talents and experiences of staff, volunteers, students, clients and visitors.

The Charity is:

- Committed to continuous improvement to ensure no-one is unfairly disadvantaged or discriminated against.

Staff, Governors and Volunteers will:

- Act with fairness and impartiality. They will uphold the inclusive culture and values of QAC and not discriminate unlawfully or unfairly.

Students will:

- Understand that everyone is different and treat people equally, fairly and with respect.

